

CHUCK JEAN is a legend within the wrestling world and considered as one of the best wrestlers that Albert Lea has ever produced. He was dominant in his high school wrestling career and finished his senior year as State Champion as an individual and also helped Albert Lea win the Team Championship. While Chuck is best known as a wrestler he was also an outstanding football player and captained the strong 1966 squad.

Chuck went on to a highly successful college-wrestling career. He was an individual and team NCAA Champion at Iowa State University and then transferred to Adams State College and was an individual and team NAIA Champion. In his four years of college eligibility Chuck was a national individual and team champion each of the competing years...an outstanding achievement! Chuck is a member of several Hall of Fames including; Minnesota Wrestling Coaches Association (1989), Adams State College (2006), Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (2007), May Civic Center Region One (2009), Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference All Time Wrestling Team (2009), Gle Brand Wrestling – Iowa State University (2010).
