

CLAY LYON graduated from Albert Lea High School in 1956, where he lettered in basketball, football, baseball and tennis. His prolific scoring as a forward on the varsity basketball team produced 224 points as a junior and 358 points as a senior, which was the school record and second in the Big Nine Conference. Although Albert Lea had no formal baseball program, Ralph Summers organized a team of players to play an abbreviated schedule of up to eight games. As a lefty, Lyon pitched a no-hitter against Mankato High School. The team subsequently lost in a district playoff to Austin. He lettered four times in basketball at Luther College and was named All-Conference in basketball and baseball. He held the school record of 1127 points in basketball while at Luther. He currently resides in Goodyear, Arizona.
