

DARREL GAVLE was an outstanding all around athlete who was co-captain and played both offensive and defense line in football. Darrel was named to the First Team Big 9 Conference, First Team All-State WCCO Radio, First Team All State Minneapolis Tribune and Honorable Mention Prep All-American Football Team for the Coach & Athlete Magazine. Darrel co-captained the basketball team which finished with a 14 – 5 record and tied for second place in the Big 9. Darrel averaged 14.5 points per game and was selected to the Big 9 Second Team. In track Darrel set the school record in the shot-put with a throw of 55' 1", which was the winning throw at the Regional Track Meet.

Darrel went on to a college career in the Ivy League at Dartmouth and was a three-year starter in football. The 1970 Dartmouth football team had a 9-0 record and was ranked 14th in the nation.