

GREG SHOFF

At Albert Lea High School, GREGG SHOFF was a two-time letter winner in football, basketball and track; but it was on the field where he found the most success.

During his senior year, in 1972, Shoff was selected Big Nine All-Conference. He was named an All-State football player by the Minneapolis Tribune, WCCO All-State team, All America Sunkist, All-American By Scholastic Coach Magazine. He was also 1972 tri-captain in football.

After graduation from ALHS, Shoff was a three year letter winner and starter at the University of Minnesota and played in the 1976 Blue-Gray Collage All-Star game.

After starting 33 games for the Gophers, he was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons.

He went on to become a football coach at Minneapolis West, North Hennipin Community College, Hill Murray and Augsburg.
