

JAY GUSTAFSON

As a football player, JAY GUSTAFSON had more wins than any, ALHS quarterback, and was undefeated at 22-0. He's the school's all-time career passing leader, named an all-state player in 1968 and led the team to two state championships in 1967 and 1968.

Gustafson was an all-state basketball player in 1969 and all-state baseball athlete the same year as a first baseman.

He also had an impressive football career at the University of North Dakota. He was named two-time North Central all-conference, and was the all-time passing leader upon graduation. He is UND's all-time touchdown leader.

Gustafson was quarterback of the 1972 team the won a national Championship and was named quarterback to the UND Team of the Century.