

VINNY CERRATO was a three-year letter winner in football, hockey and track. He was an all-conference performer in hockey and currently ranks in the top-10 in ALHS scoring history. He was also an all-conference and all-state performer in football. Cerrato holds the school record in the 440-yard dash and 880-yard relay, and was the 1976 mile relay state champion.

Cerrato went on to play college football at Iowa State University, as a quarterback and wide receiver. In 1983 and '84, he was a graduate assistant for the University of Minnesota and recruiting coordinator in 1985. He then served as recruiting coordinator for Lou Holtz at the University of Notre Dame, winning the 1988 National Championship during that time. From 1991 - 1999, Cerrato worked for the San Francisco 49ers, both as Director of College Scouting and Director of Player Personnel. The 49ers won the Super Bowl in 1994.

Cerrato then spent 9 years with the Washington Redskins in two different stints. From 2002-2009, he served as Vice President for Football Operations until his resignation.
