

ROSS DAHL is one of the best hockey players in Albert Lea history. He was a three-year starter for the Tigers and set the all time career scoring record. One of the highlights of his hockey career was getting a hat trick against the number one team in the State, Bloomington Lincoln. Ross was named to the First Team Big 9 Conference and was Honorable Mention All State. Ross also played defensive back in football and was a very good baseball player.

Ross went on to an outstanding college hockey career at Northern Michigan University and then the University of Wisconsin-Superior. He capped off his career playing with his younger brother Todd at UW-Superior which finished second in the Division III Hockey Championship in 1981.
