Class of 1978
Basketball

Bill Dress Way before the Milwaukee Bucks recently claimed the title, the Albert Lea Tigers basketball program had the original Greek Freak. Bill “Billy” Dress graduated in 1978 after three seasons as a varsity player. Bill had a deep shooting range to compliment his size, and strong frame. Bill set rebounding and scoring records for the program which stood for many years, was named first team All-Conference and was a runner up for Mr. Basketball in his senior season. One of Bill’s favorite collegiate memories was at Yuba College where he had scored over 30 points that game and the opposing coach ran over and said, “Hey Dress, I should’ve recruited you harder.” Bill lives in Richland, Washington with his wife, Gina, and their three girls, Brookelyn, Ashlyn, and Dilyn.
Congratulations to Bill Dress
