Athletic Hall of Fame
2021 Inductee

Charles "Chuck" Schneider
Class of 1956
(in memoriam)
Football, Basketball,
Baseball

Chuck Schneider was not only a multi-talented athlete, he was a multi-talented person. Chuck was a halfback on the football team, point guard on the basketball team, played several positions in baseball, and was a superb golfer. Chuck was a nine-time letterwinner for ALHS, and served as a Captain for the track and basketball team. Chuck competed in several events for the track team, and set some school records which stood for many years.

He attended Cornell College where he competed in both basketball and golf. Chuck then won a scholarship to the prestigious Julliard School of Music which launched a successful career in music. Chuck also has been honored as a Distinguished Alumni of Albert Lea High School.
Congratulations to the Chuck Schneider Family
