Chrissy Monson (Robinson)
Class of 2013
Cross Country,
Track & Field

Most athletes work and wait to become a team leader. A rare few, like Chrissy Monson, start there. Chrissy Monson ran both varsity cross country and track for Albert Lea for five years, earning All-State honors in both sports. She was All-Conference in cross country for five years, while also being a three-time Big 9 Champion. She was a Captain for the 2012 Big Nine Championship team. Chrissy competed in both the cross country and track state meets for five years straight. In track, Chrissy won the State Championship in the 1600 meter run, and was section champion for two years. Over her track career, she had 10 Big 9 Championships and set school records in both the 1600 and 3200 meter races.

Her success continued as she competed in college for the University of Northern Illinois. Chrissy currently lives in Indianapolis, Indiana with her husband Michael Robinson and their daughter Elleanna.

Congratulations to Chrissy Monson (Robinson)
